Thank You

To our class advisors, Ms. Bailey and Mr. MacKillop, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts. You'll never know how much we appreciated the extra measures you've taken to make our years here memorable ones. Our gratitude isn't enough for all of the hard work you've done for us.

We would like to thank our yearbook advisor, Mr. Garrity, for his patience, good humor and help in creating another successful edition of Memorabilia. You're Awesome!

For their endless dedication, strength, and support we say thank you to our great guidance counselors, Mrs. Solar and Mrs. Pupecki and also Mrs. DeMeco for keeping us supplied with guidance passes and always being there to listen and aid us. Finally, thanks to Mr. Hastings, Mrs. Kach, and all of the Clinton High School Staff members for their knowledgeable advice over the past four years. Freshman Year '04–'05

We entered Clinton High School in August of 2004 as intimidated Freshmen, when all you could hear was "dirt" echoing throughout the gym. However, we knew that we would eventually begin to blend into the CHS hallways.

We elected Michael Giansanti as President, Erin Peete as Vice President, Alex Ashline as Secretary, and Elizabeth Ainsworth as Treasurer. Ms. Bailey and Mrs. Defranca guided us through our first year. Although placing last in Spirit Week, we proved ourselves worthy by placing second in both the Powder Puff football game and the One Act Play. As the year drew to an end, we looked forward to the future pep rally where we could have our revenge on the incoming "dirt"!

Sophomore Year '05–'06

We returned to Clinton High in September, 2005, no longer "dirt" but as sophisticated sophomores. We reelected Michael Giansanti as President and elected Brittany West as Vice President, Keishla Mendez as Secretary, and Matt Holfinger as Treasurer. Our advisors, Ms. Bailey and Mr. Genova, encouraged our class, and we had a successful spirit week. The year also brought us tragedy with the passing of one of our teachers, Mrs. Cheryl Farragher, but we made the most of the year and looked forward to becoming juniors.

Junior Year '06–'07

Coming into our junior year, the class reelected President Mike Giansanti along with Vice President Bruno Graziani, Secretary Elizabeth Rauscher, and Treasurer Roberto Facendola. Ms. Bailey and Mr. MacKilloop enjoyed many great times with us as our class advisors, including Homecoming on October 28, 2006, and Prom on May 19, 2007.

We ran over the other grades in powder puff football and came in second during a close race in Spirit Week. When the year came to a close, we looked forward to making many lasting memories in our final year at CHS.

Senior Year '07–'08

We entered our senior year on August 28th, 2007, where we elected Mike Giansanti as President, Jerilyn Novia as Vice-President, Liz Rauscher as Secretary, and Roberto Facendola as Treasurer. As we filled out college applications and measured for caps and gowns, we began to foresee our futures after high school. Senior week began with a trip to High Meadows Resort in Connecticut. Baccalaureate ceremonies took place in the high school auditorium on June 4th, and our Senior Banquet was held at The Manor in West Boylston on June 5th. Graduation arrived on June 7th where we received our diplomas and said our final farewells to Clinton High.

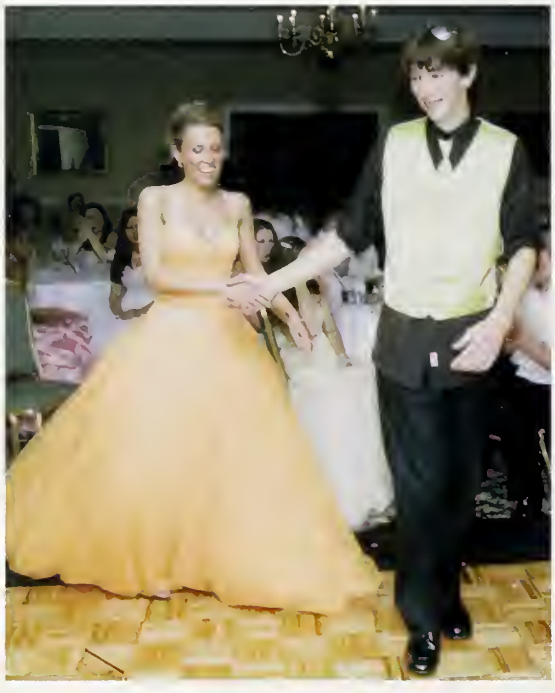
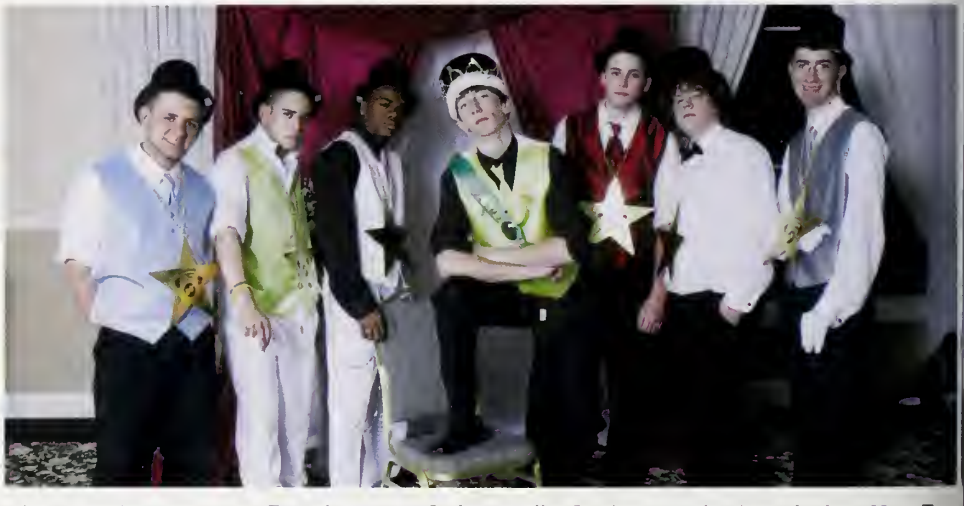
The Time of My Life

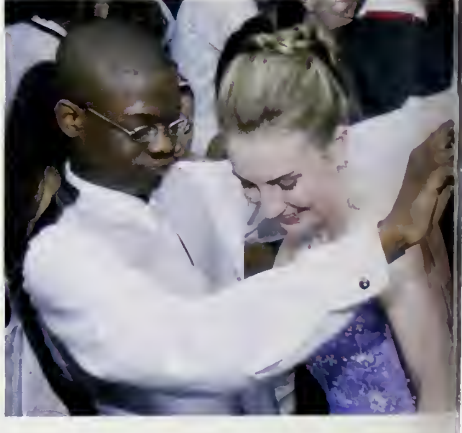
On May 19, 2007, our class arrived at the Sterling Country Club for our much anticipated Junior Prom. The paparazzi, led by the infamous Walt Doyle, snapped our pictures as we made our way down the red carpet. The weather that evening was less than perfect, but the attitude of those attending could not be dampened by the wet weather. Our colors were red, gold, and black, and our song was "The Time of My Life." The highlight of the evening came as Elizabeth Rauscher was selected as Queen and Matt Hart as King. When the dance ended, the celebration continued at our after-prom party at the YMCA in Westborough where we really had the time of our lives!

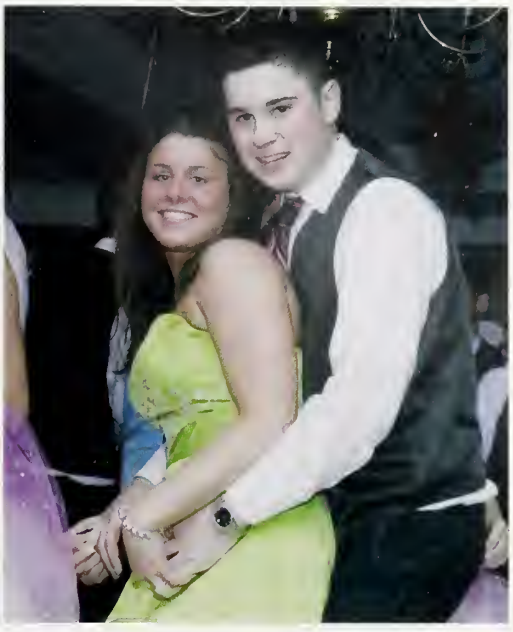
Queen and Her Court (L.-R.) Rosa DeLeon, Maria Pallotta, Audrey Hazel, Queen Elizabeth Rauscher, Jerilyn Novia, Brittany West, and Marta Reyes.

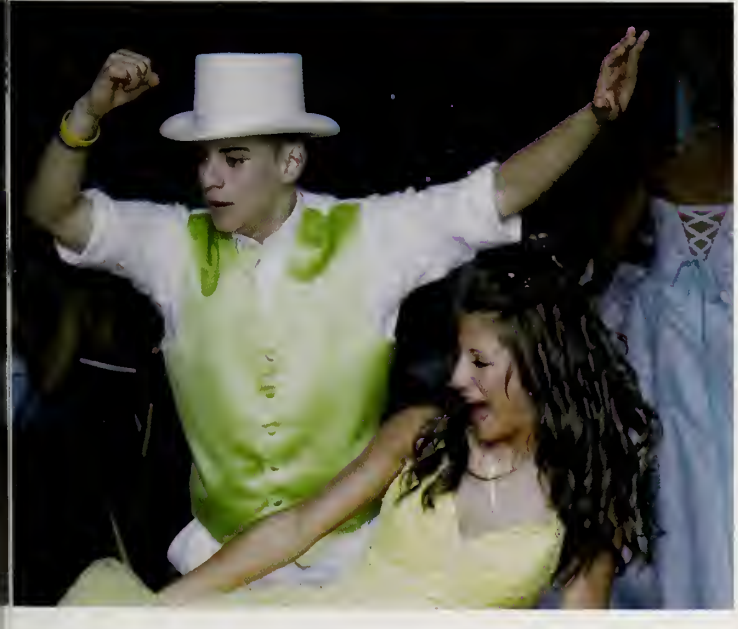


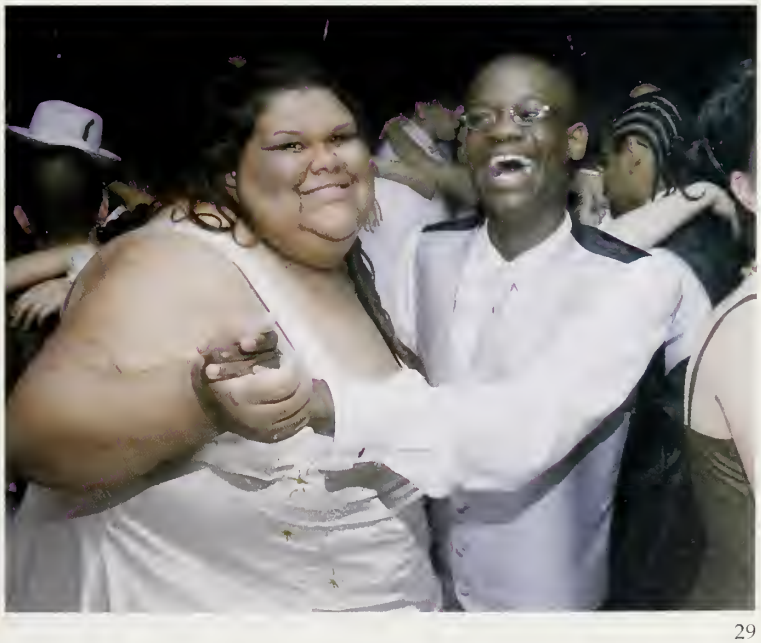


King and His Court (L.-R.) Daniel Tamayo, Carlos Bonilla, Gordon Daniels, King Matthew Hart, Tom Corbett, Ian Milburn, and Roberto Facendola.







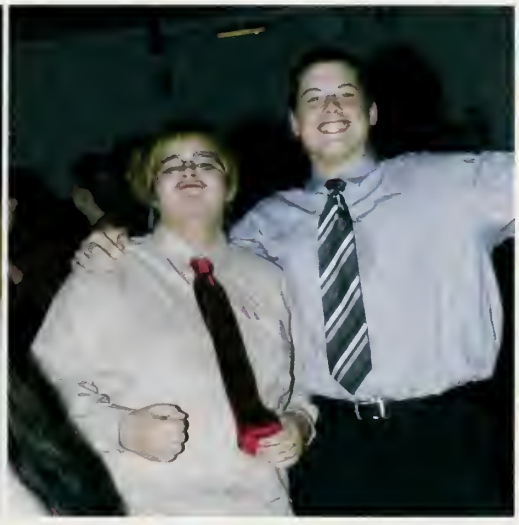


Homecoming

Las Vegas, Nevada, was brought to Clinton, Massachusetts, on the evening of October 21, 2006. The traditional location of the town hall was appropriately filled with fun games, awesome music, and plenty of dancing students surrounded by teal, silver, and black decorations. The dance, which nobody wanted to end, came to a close as the Queen, Paola Ramos, and King, James Cadoret, were formally crowned while their court danced with them to our class song, "Don't Stop Believing" by Journey.

Queen and Her Court (L.-R.) Andrea Camas, Jessica Desormes, Kasey Murrman, Elizabeth Ainsworth, Erin Peete and Queen Paola Ramos.

King and His Court (L.-R.) Mike Giansanti, Wally Mayard, Mat Linenkemper, Paul Bradley, Walter Aguilar and King James Cadoret.



Spirit Week

The class of 2008 proved that we were "too hot to handle" when we recorded our first spirit week victory under the theme "We're on Fire!". While sporting firefighter hats during the rally, we smoked the competition by winning the Hat & Mitten Drive, Can Drive, Gym Decorations, and the Tug of War. Over the weekend, the cheerleaders' grand fire truck entrance ignited another undefeated season for the cheerleaders and powder puff team. Our class showed its true spirit when we tallied 2,300 points and secured the coveted first place title.

Senior Hop

The pouring rain did not keep us from having "A Night in Paradise." As we walked into the town hall on March 8, 2008, we couldn't help but notice the "notorious" palm tree that has been ubiquitous at many of our class dances. The highlight of the evening was the Selection of Francheska Alicea as queen and Matt Hammond as king. We enjoyed ourselves tremendously at our last formal dance, and we realized our senior year was rapidly coming to an end.

Excel

The CHS Excel Club was established in 1996 to provide students with service opportunities in our community. This year's officers are: Mike Giansanti, President; Irene Jimenez, Vice President; Josh Grigsby, Secretary; Jessica Burdick, Treasurer; and Matt Hart, Historian. Under the direction of Mrs. Rose Solar and Mr. Terrance Ingano, club membership reached 193, the largest ever. Some of our activities this year included: Ole Home Days in Central Park, the "Harvest Ball" at the Corcoran House, and a town-wide "Pumpkin Festival" on High Street. During "Make a Difference" month, we collected over 100 new hats, mittens, and gloves for local needy; "Operation Christmas Child", our annual shoebox program, brought in 65 gift boxes for needy children overseas. Along with our annual senior citizen social, the biggest event of the year for Excel was something brand new — for the first time we participated in "The Souper Bowl of Caring", a national food drive. We held our own local food drive at all three of our schools during Super Bowl Week. Although our beloved Patriots lost the game, the winners in Clinton were needy families. We collected 2,182 pounds (2 tons!) of food and gave it all to WHEAT. It was the largest food drive ever held in Clinton Public Schools.

Step Up to Excellence

Step Up to Excellence, a mentoring program, was brought to Clinton in 2001 to provide select students with opportunities t learn leadership skills, explore college programs as underclassmen, and help others through group and individual community service. Step Up students graduating with the class of 2008, Kira Kennedy, Luis Negron, Jessica Desormes, and Dan Tamayo, mad great use of the advantages offered to them and experienced summer programs in Florida, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Utal and Grenada. These students completed a three-year commitment to the Step Up Program that was highlighted by group event such as indoor rock climbing, bowling, going to Boston to see the play "Shear Madness" and the "Blue Man Group", snow tubing and a series of public speaking events and dinners. All four graduating students also continued Clinton High School's commitmen to Camp Sunshine in Casco, Maine, last year by volunteering as counselors for families dealing with childhood cancer. This year's senior class would all agree that this program has changed their lives for the better.

Six weeks seemed to last a lifetime for the members of Gael Force. The team built its robot in Nypro's new carpentry area and playing field, where they not only created a reliable machine but also memories that will last forever.

Team 126 attended both the Granite State Regional in Manchester, New Hampshire, and the Connecticut Regional in Hartford. During both of these events, Gael Force made it to the semifinal round before being eliminated by the winning alliance. In Manchester, Gael Force won the Chairman's Award, which encourages the best partnership effort among team participants and best exemplifies the true meaning of FIRST. In Hartford, Team 126 won the Engineering Inspiration award, which brings engineering awareness and interest within a team's school and community.

The Championship event was held in the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. The team worked hard with its powerful robot and put forth its best effort. The students and mentors proudly returned home, knowing they had a great team and a life-altering experience.

Green and Gold

Put on your big green sweater,
With the big gold letter,
As we cheer those Clinton boys along!
Through the worst of weather,
We will stick together,
As we sing this merry song:

"All hail the Green and Gold!
Let Clinton's fame unfold.
We'll raise the banner to the sky,
For the honor Clinton High!"

"As we go marching down the field,
We'll hold that line and never yield
And then we'll fight to heights untold,
For dear old Clinton's Green and Gold!"

The Last Day of School

May 30, 2008, was the first day of school all year that we didn't mind waking up early. The members of the Class of 2008 arrived at Shaw's parking lot anxiously awaiting the parade which would celebrate our last HURRAH. After snaking our way slowly to school, the day we had waited for, seemingly for a lifetime, finally arrived. It was a wonderful day in our lives. After our last final exam, we practiced for graduation, received our caps and gowns, and took the traditional last run through the corridors.

We had many successes and failures throughout our careers, but with the assistance of our families, friends, teachers, administrators, and the town iteself, we felt prepared to start a new era of our lives.

Lunch

As we made our way through the corridor we arrived at our favorite period: lunch. Whether it be chicken patty on a bu nachos, or rib sandwiches, we cherished the ambiance of the lunch room and all the delicious selections it had to offer. This ye a surprise refreshed us, and vitamin water was introduced to all three lunches. As seniors we were all excited to leave CHS, bt we will never forget the jello with topping.

Baccalaureate

On June 4, 2008, Baccalaureate was held in the auditorium. It was a night of reflection and a test drive for our caps and gowns. Matt Hammond received the Senate Education Arts and Humanities Award, Allison Mullin received the Telegram and Gazette Student Achievement Award, and both Abiola Daniels and Matt Hart received the Four Years Perfect Attendance Award.

Jack Novia, Class of '76, compared our lives to an open book, stating that we are just beginning Chapter 2 and to make the best of it. Liz Rauscher and James Cadoret presented a Power Point presentation, and the class sang "I'll Be There for You."

Class Trip

On June 2, 2008, under beautiful blue skies, we traveled to High Meadows Resort in Granby, Connecticut. We couldn't have asked for a better day, and by 7:50, we were on our way.

We spent time by the pool, played volleyball, rode horses, bungee jumped, and ate, ate, ate. Some of us even showed our prowess in the ultimate Frisbee field by taking first place in the competition. We arrived home with memories that would remain with us forever.

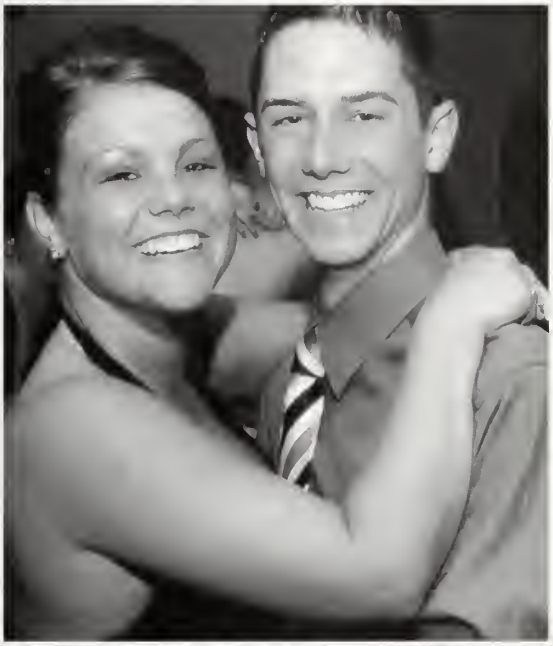
Class Banquet

On June 5, 2008, our class held its senior banquet at The Manor in West Boylston. Dreary skies and drizzle greeted us as we boarded the busses, but nothing was going to dampen our spirits on our last social gathering as a class. We enjoyed the buffet and danced the remainder of the evening away. Roberto gave us a "Thriller," and the class sang "I'll Be There for You" louder than ever before. Every moment we were together was precious as we realized that our time together was nearing its close.



Graduation

On June 7, 2008, as temperatures climbed into the 90's our magic moment came. Mr. Gaw and Mr. Hastings enlightened us with their wisdom and humor. The theme of the day was individualism. We were advised to use the skills we possessed to their fullest. We listened to Valedictorian Allison Mullin and Salutatorian Roberto Facendola, as well as high honor students Matthew Hammond and Michael Giansanti. Finally, we flipped our tassels and threw our caps in celebration of our accomplishments. We departed with the knowledge that although we were leaving CHS, it would never leave us.

Congratulations! We are so proud of you, your accomplishments and the man you have become. The past four years have been great and we look forward to sharing many more of your successes.

You owe it to yourself to be the best you can be - in baseball and in life. Remember, the difference between a successful person and others is not a lack of strength, not a lack of knowledge, but rather a lack of will.

We hope that you find success and happiness in all of your future endeavors.

"Winners Are People Like You"
(Nancye Sims)

Winners take chances.
Like everyone else,
they fear failing,
but they refuse to let
fear control them.
Winners don't give up.
When life gets rough,
they hang in until the
going gets better.
Winners are flexible.
They realize there is more than one way and are willing to try others.
Winners don't blame fate
for their failures nor luck for their successes
Winners are patient.
They know a goal
is only as worthy as
the effort that's required
to achieve it.
Winners are people
like you.
They make this world a better place to be.

From kindergarten to your senior year of high school, you have been laying the foundation for one thing, the rest of your life. You have been such a part of both of our lives that we feel as if you're family. We've watched you mature into who you are today. Although we're sad to see you leave, we cherish the time we've spent together and wish you all the very best. Please continue to make us proud. The road ahead is long and will sometimes be difficult. Living life is like driving a car; look out the windshield to see where you're going but don't forget to look at the rearview mirror, to see from where you've come. Remember the knowledge gained in kindergarten - learn some and think some, and draw and paint and sing and dance and play and work everyday some.

Evan MacKillop and Suzanne Bailey

Class of 2008

Always carry the spirit of Clinton High School with you as you walk into your future. The friendships you have made and the lessons you have learned will guide you to your personal success. Always be caring for others and never forget where you came from!

Mr. Hastings and Mrs. Kach

For the small group that you were, you did a wonderful job in creating this lasting memory for the Class of 2008. Thank you Liz, Kira, Erin, Jess, James, and Wally. I hope your memories will focus on the fun we had. I am sure your futures are filled with adventure and success.

P.S. I will always hate cats.
